ORDER

Issued: September 30, 2004

Released: October 1, 2004

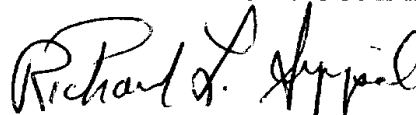

The final phase of testimony was heard on March 16, 2004. Filings of findings and conclusions were postponed to allow time for Family Broadcasting, Inc. ("Family") to obtain authority for an assignment to a third person. Order FCC 04M-10, released March 18, 2004. A further postponement was granted and the hearing was again stayed until June 30, 2004. Order FCC 04M-16, released April 30, 2004. Again, on request by Family, the time was postponed until September 30, 2004. Order FCC 04M-21, released, released July 1, 2004.

Recent request for further delay was received via telephone. Based on the parties' advice, it appears that the question of assignment for Family under the Commission's distress sale policy is still under consideration.

IT IS ORDERED that this hearing IS AGAIN STAYED until November 30, 2004.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if Family Broadcasting does not qualify for assignment authority by November 30, 2004, Proposed Findings and Conclusions of Law WILL BE FILED on December 20, 2004, and Reply Findings and Conclusions of Law WILL BE FILED on January 17, 2005.
